

All Thompson final @ All Access Challenge

Oct 1st Earlville Iowa

The fifth running of the series dubbed the Wright-Way Trailers Quick 16 was contested on a beautiful day at Tri-State Raceway. After a morning of time trials and qualifying it was Bob Wright at the top of the sheet. Wright went a quick 6.35 to take top honors. In the eliminator it was a good day to be a Thompson. Brad Thompson came from the number 16 qualifying position and used sharp reaction to green and dead-on the dial laps to reach the final. In the final it was Ray Thompson, who himself had a couple .00 r/t and a couple dead-on the dial laps to reach the final. Brad got the Wally from his father Ray in a close double-breakout race. Howard Schlueter and Kevin Haack were semi-finalists. In the Quick Performance S/P class it was Kevin Haack getting the win over Ray Thompson. Haack put together a .022 package for the win and the Wally. Jim Hesseling was the lone semi-finalist. Ryan McCann bested Taylor Schlueter in the Maxwell Transmission Pro class final to earn the Wally. Jim Laughlin was the lone semi-finalist. Tyler Gardner (2016 S/P points champ) bested Valerie Steffens in the Delhi Lumber Sportsman class final. In the duel of champions Gardner ran dead-on with a 5 for the win and the Wally. Rick Coleman and Tim Kania were semi-finalists. Dustin Wells grabbed the Wally in the Thompson Truck and Trailers Trophy class final, besting Brian Moody in a close double-breakout race. Tim Carlson and Mike Walsh were semi-finalists. In the AIH Chrome Street Bike class it was past champion Bill Gauley showing why he is the reigning champ. Gauley used great r/t's and sharp dialing to best a tough field. In the final it was Gauley getting the win over Dylan Tydrich. Cody Areneson was the lone semi-finalist. In the newly formed Carlson Customs Open Bike class it was Damon Pulliam besting Brian Moody in a close final. Stan Sleaver was the lone semi-finalist. Then it was run-off time for the bikes as we only have the one Wally for Bikes. Bill Gauley got the win over Damon Pulliam in a close drag race. Last years champ in the Toys Done Right Junior Dragster class, Aiva Moore proved why she is the outgoing champ. Moore bested Austin Begyn in the Toys Done Right Junior Dragster final. Angelle Pullin was the lone semi-finalist. Levi Mulholland won the Novak Electric Junior Consi over 1st time finalist Braeden Begyn. Daisy Begyn was the lone semi-finalist. Then for the last time in 2017 the winner came back for the Novak's King of the Track run-off for the Eagle. Aiva Moore got the win over Levi Mulholland in a close run-off lap. During the day's event the top 8 points earner on the season were in the Azbill Family Run for the Ring. At the end of things Valerie Steffens (3 time 2017 champ H/S, JD, and Sportsman) bested a red-lighting Jasmine Moore for the win and the RING. TSR would like to thank its racers, crew and sponsors for a great season of racing.
