

Rausch Wins First Member Track Madness; Pozolinski Wins Wright-Way Trailers Quick 16

June 11 – Earlville, IA

Lou Rausch made his first trip to TSR in 2016 a successful one. Rausch bested Tony Frazier in the Weldon Tire Super Pro class final. Rausch put together a .016 package in the final. Al Grimm and Don Paisley were semi-finalists. Rausch came around for the run-off against Delhi Lumber Pro champ Jeff Freeman Jr. Rausch used sharp reaction times and deadly dials to get the first Member Track Madness championship. Rausch then bested Justin Rosenbohm in the run-off final. Bill Morris and Jeff Freeman Jr. were semi-finalists. Jeff Freeman Jr had an easy win the Delhi Lumber Pro final as Jace Deering couldn't make the call giving Freeman the win. Mike Freeman was the lone semi-finalist. Justin Rosenbohm won a double break-out race with Jason Azbill Jr. in the Sportsman class final. Mike Freeman was the lone semi-finalist. Bill Morris Bested Bill Gauley in the Trophy class final. Jason Azbill Jr. bested Allie Ulbrich in the Toys Done Right Junior Dragster class final. Max Kohl was the lone semi-finalist. Jasmine Moore won the Novak Electric Junior Consi over Lyla Begyn. Briece Begyn was the lone semi-finalist. In the Novak's King of the Track, Jasmine Moore got the win over Jason Azbill Jr. in a close final round.

June 12

Andy Pozolinski showed his form from his championship season of 2015, besting Lou Rausch in the Wright-Way Trailers Quick 16 final. Andy used a .000 r/t to get out in front of Rausch and stuck his nose in there for the win. Pozolinski was the only driver to get the best of Lou Rausch all weekend. Jim Hesselning and Mike Chitty were semi-finalists. Afton Swanson was low qualifier with a quick 6.25 to receive the Wright-Way Trailers low qualifier award. In the Weldon Tire Super Pro class final it was Lou Rausch besting Tony Robertson. Brad Thompson and Ray Thompson were semi-finalists. Travis Steffens won the Delhi Lumber Pro class final over Dustin Wells. Jeff Freeman and Ryan Seffrood were semi-finalists.

Ron Waline won Sportsman over Jason Azbill Jr. in a close final. Derek Maxwell and Carl Gardner were semi-finalists. Tim Earle bested Dylan Tydrich in the Trophy class final. John Ihm was the lone semi-finalist. Jason Azbill Jr. won High School over Blayne Morton. Travis Steffens was the lone semi-finalist. In the Stowell-It for Cancer eliminator it was Jarod Lorenson over Bill Gauley. Shaun Bellock and Dylan Tydrich were semi-finalists. Bill Gauley bested Jarron Christianson in the AIH Chrome Street Bike class final. Dennis Begyn was the lone semi-finalist. Matthias Kohl bested Aiva Moore in the Toys Done Right Junior Dragster class final. Johnny Davis and Addie Ulbrich were semi-finalists. Evan Begyn won the Novak Electric Junior Consi over Kaleb Cox. Max Kohl and Daisy Begyn were semi-finalists. In the Novak's King of the Track run-off it was Evan Begyn besting Matthias Kohl. TSR would like to thank our series sponsor and NHRA for the New Member Track program.

