

Fuller and Balk break through tough fields

June 3rd Earlville Iowa

With weather looming in the afternoon 2 time trials and race was the call. Mike Fuller used sharp r/t's and close to the dial runs to win the Quick Performance S/P class. In the final it was

Fuller running closer to his dial than Angele DeJesus. In the Maxwell Transmission Pro class it was Dan Balk getting the win over Jeff Freeman Jr. Mark Rosenbaum and Steve Pifkin were semi-finalists. Ron Waline bested Matt Eick in the Delhi Lumber Sportsman class final. Travis Steffens and Lance Schroeder were semi-finalists. Brandon Sauer was the lone Trophy entry and ran 12.57 on a 12.65 dial. The Foxy Lady class was the highlighted class of the day. Foxy Lady is a free entry class for non-points racers to have a little fun and see what the husbands like doing. Awards are provided by Ollinger Garage Door out of Atkins. Wendy Ulbrich bested Ashley Ollinger in a close final. Marcia Walker and Mary Keuter were semi-finalists. It was an all Begyn final in the Toys Done Right Junior Dragster class. Evan Begyn got the win over Breice Begyn in a close final. Breice had been hitting the tree hard all day and was pushed under by Evan in a nice lap. Jasmine Moore was the lone semi-finalist. In the Novak Electric Junior Consi it was Valerie Steffens besting Tucker Ladeburg. Maddie Notch was the lone semi-finalist. In the Novak's King of the Track it was Evan Begyn getting the win as Valerie Steffens fouled.

Chitty, Weets and Rosenbohm get wins

June 4th Earlville Iowa

While his dad (Mike) was going to the winners circle in Great Bend Kansas at the Division opener Garrett Chitty took his Camaro into the winners circle himself. Garrett got the win over

Al Grimm in the Quick Performance S/P class final. David Primrose was the lone semi-finalist. Norm Weets bested Jason Seeley in the Maxwell Transmission Pro class final. Steve Geiger and Mark Rosenbaum were semi-finalists. In an all Bomb-Squad final it was son besting father. Justin Rosenbohm got the win over Mark Rosenbohm. Mike Freeman and Lance Schroeder were semi-finalists. Scott Grady got the win in 319 Graphic Studios Open Bike class presented by Carlson Customs. Grady bested one of the best in the business in Tom Klemme in a close final round. Dylan Tydrich and Nathan Stowell were semi-finalists. Last year's points champ showed us why he was champ. Bill Gauley bested a red-lighting Tydrich in the AIH Chrome Street Bike class final. Cody Arenson and Pat Finder were semi-finalists. Valerie Steffens won High School class over Ryan Estal. Mikayla Morton was the lone semi-finalist. Allie Ulbrich ran dead-on to beat Aiva Moore in the Toys Done Right Junior Dragster class final. Maya Kohl was the lone semi-finalist. Levi Mulholland bested Jasmine Moore in the Novak Electric Junior Consi final. Zach Halverson was the lone semi-finalist. In the Novak's King of the Track run-off it was Levi Mulholland getting the win over Allie Ulbrich in a close race. TSR would like to thank its sponsors and racers for their continued support.
