

Chitty wins Super Pro; Bode Takes Top Honors

Garrett Chitty bested Tom Klemme in a close final round in the Weldon Tire Super Pro class. Chitty was .00 and close to his dial. Tom Fangman and Howard Schlueter were semi-finalists. In the Delhi Lumber Pro class final it was Clay Schlueter over Jim Laughlin in a double-breakout round. Doug Heinrichs was the lone semi-finalist. A red hot James Thompson Jr. got the Sportsman win over a red-lighting Justin Rosenbohm. Travis Steffens and Mike Freeman were semi-finalists. Brett Merfeld bested Bill Morris in the Trophy class final. Janet Freeman was the lone semi-finalist. In the first Jr. Street event at TSR, Maddie Notch got the win over Keegan Campbell. In the Toys Done Right Junior Dragster class final it was Bobby Bode besting Alexis

Halverson. Evan Begyn was the lone semi-finalist. Allie Ulbrich bested Jasmine Moore in the Novak Electric Junior Consi. Ulbrich put together a nice .021 package for the win. Rolin Begyn was the lone semi-finalist. In the Novak King of the Track run-off it was Bobby Bode over Allie Ulbrich. It was a fun day and safe racing was had by all.

Freeman Jr. Heats Up; Krava Gets First Win

Ron Woolridge took on all in the Weldon Tire Super Pro class. Ron bested Charlie Hamma in the final in a close round of racing. Steve Geiger and Branden Martinson were semi-finalists. Jeff Freeman Jr. has been on the verge of a win, and got it today in fine fashion. Freeman Jr. bested a red-lighting Mike Wymore. Steve Marquis and Delvin Shepard were semi-finalists. Randy Temperley won Sportsman over Larry Behne. Tim Kania and Suzy Kania were semi-finalists. Dylan Tydrich bested John Ihm in the Trophy class final. Matt Melchert was the lone semi-finalist. Tom Krava got his first win at TSR in the AIH Chrome Street Bike class presented by Grady's Graphics at the expense of Jim Ihm. Bill Morris was the lone semi-finalist. Blayne Morton was unopposed in the High School class final. Aiva Moore bested Kaleb Cox in the Toys Done Right Junior Dragster class final. Evan Begyn and Valerie Steffens were semi-finalists. Addie Ulbrich bested Max Kohl in the Novak Electric Junior Consi. Lyla Begyn was the lone semi-finalist. This one was close, Aiva Moore and Addie Ulbrich both had .017 reaction time to green and both ran under by .004. This one went to the little number and that means close racing. Aiva Moore got the nod in the Novak King of the Track run-off.