

July 1-2, 2017 - Pifkin Crowned King - Black goes 3 out of 3 in Quick 16

On Saturday, Tri-State Raceway contested its King of the Track at the mid-season. Taking the top 4 points earners on the season and running them off until each class had a champion. The champions clash for the title (King of the Track) and the Wally. Class champions were Al Grimm S/P, Dave Primrose Pro Bike, Travis Steffens Sportsman and Steve Pifkin Pro. Pifkin bested Steffens in the semi's and Dave Primrose in the final. Other winners on the day were David Olsen over Ray Thompson in the Quick Performance S/P class final. John Davis Jr. was the lone semi-finalist. Jason Seeley was sharp all day as he bested Jason Azbill

Jr. in the Maxwell Transmisiion Pro class final. Dustin Wells and Dave Walker were semi-finalists. Johnny Davis got the win over Travis Steffens in the Delhi Lumber Sportsman class final. Valerie Steffens was the lone semi-finalist. Suzy Kania won Trophy class over Dave Vegter. Kevin Keuter and Tony Metzger were semi-finalists. In the Toys Done Right Junior Dragster class final it was a clash of the champions. Aiva Moore bested Valerie Steffens in a close round. Zach Halverson was the lone semi-finalist. Daisy Begyn won the Novak Electric Junior Consi by beating Briecce Begyn in a close final round. Braeden Begyn was the lone semi-finalist. The two winners came back for one more round called the Novak's King of the Track run-off. Defending series champ Aiva Moore peddled to a win over Daisy Begyn. TSR would like to thank NHRA for the King of the Track program and our series sponsors for their continued support.

Bill Black and his 6 second dragster have been on a terror this season in the Wright-Way Trailers Quick 16. Black has won all 3 events so far this season. Black bested John Davis Jr. in a close final round Sunday. Black bested Craig Schultz in the opening round. Black then got around EmiLee Novak and Brad Thompson to meet Davis for the crown. Davis Jr. got the first round win via the red-light of Clarence Mayo. The Davis dispatched Al Grimm and Tyler Gardner to make the final. Bob Wright was the low qualifier (6.32) and received the Wright-Way Trailers low qualifier 100$. In the Quick Performance S/P class final it was Tyler Gardner and John Davis Jr. They decided to split and not race. Lou Rausch was the lone semi-finalist. Bill Cox parked his beautiful 48 Anglia in the TSR winner circle with the win in Maxwell Transmission Pro. Cox bested Mike Wymore in a close final round. Ben Haugen and Jason Seeley were semi-finalists. Justin Rosenbohm bested Valerie Steffens in the Delhi Lumber Sportsman class final. Lance Schroeder was the lone semi-finalist. Kevin Keuter took top honors in Trophy class as he bested Tyler Freeman in a close race. Isaiah Kruser and Suzy Kania were semi-finalists. Valerie Steffens bested Ryan Estal in the High School class final. In the AIH Chrome Street Bike class presented by Grady's Graphics it was Todd Tydrich besting a red-lighting Glenn Aubrey. Stan Sleaver was the lone semi-finalist. In the Twisted Racing Open Bike class presented by Carlson's Customs it was Tom Klemme over Cory Van Deusen. Scott Grady and Isaiah Keller were semi-finalists. Tucker Ladeburg got the win over Austin Begyn in the Toys Done Right Junior Dragster class final. Levi Mulholland was the lone semi-finalist. Evan Begyn bested a red-lighting Jasmine Moore in the Novak Electric Junior Consi final. Kaled Westendorf was the lone semi-finalist. In the Novak's King of the Track run-off it was Evan Begyn besting Tucker Ladeburg in a close final round. TSR would like to thank its sponsor for their continued support.