

Iowa State Champs Crowned at TSR

August 5th Earlville Iowa

Charlie Hamma took his Digital Delay Cutlass to the final of the Quick Performance S/P class, where John Day awaited the final round matchup with Hamma. Day was good but Hamma was better at both ends of the race. Al Grimm was the lone semi-finalist. Brandon Schmall parked his Dart in the TSR winners circle by besting Jim Wolff in the Maxwell Transmission Pro class final. Nathan Schroeder was the lone semi-finalist. Randy Temperley won the Delhi Lumber Sportsman class final over a red-lighting Bruce Cox. Travis Steffens was the lone semi-finalist. Biker Bill Morris bested a too quick Brian Moody in the Thompson Truck and Trailers Trophy class. Jason Kaiser and Suzy Kania were semi-finalists. In the Ollinger Garage Door sponsored Foxy Lady eliminator it was

TSR manager Bill Cassil congratulates Bill Morris on his Trophy class win.

Marcia Walker besting Wendy Ulbrich. Jodi Brady was the lone semi-finalist. Newly crowned 2017 points champ Valerie Steffens bested Matthias Kohl in the Toys Done Right Junior Dragster class final. Briece Begyn was the lone semi-finalist. Tucker Ladeburg won the Novak Electric Junior Consi over Levi Mulholland. Ella Heath was the lone semi-finalist. Tucker Ladeburg then returned to race the champ Valerie Steffens in the Novak's King of the Track. Ladeburg put together a .015 package leaving Valerie Staffens little chance. It was a fun day with the special State Championships and Foxy Lady eliminators added to the event. TSR would like to thank its series sponsors and NHRA for the State Championship program.

Schlueter wins Quick, Steffens Triples

August 6th Earlville Iowa

The fourth running of the 5 race series dubbed Wright-Way Trailers Quick 16 was won by Howard Schlueter over Ray Thompson. A red-lighting Doug Yates started Howard's way to the final. Schlueter then advanced past a too quick Al Grimm to meet Bob Wright in the semis. Wrights car slowed giving the win to Schlueter. Thompson advanced past Larry Dalton's door-car, to meet Dave Primrose who went too quick. A red-light start advanced Thompson past Scott Lindle to make the final. Bob Wright was the low qualifier with a 6.35 elapsed time. Mike Halverson bested Bill Black in the Quick Performance S/P class final. Matt Kohl and Al Grimm were semi-finalists. Jace Deering made the best of his chances going .003 in the final of the Maxwell Transmission Pro class final over Jim Laughlin. Brennan Weets was the lone semi-finalist. Valerie Steffens (note 1st win of the TRIPLE) bested Justin Rosenbohm in the Delhi Lumber Sportsman class final. Andrew Quinn was the lone semi-finalist. Breven Platt won the Thompson Truck and Trailers Trophy class over a red-lighting Traci Schmitt. Tom Schmuecker was the lone semi-finalist. Valerie Steffens won High School over Brock Azbill. Ryan Estal was the lone semi-finalist. In the Grady's Graphics Open Bike class it was Pat Finder besting Tom

Jace Deering and crew celebrate his win in Maxwell Transmission Pro eliminator.

Maci Sloane with her trophy from taking the win light in the Junior Dragster final.

Schmuecker in a close final. Mike Meyer was the lone semi-finalist. Bill Gauley showed us why he is the reigning AIH Chrome Street Bike champ. Gauley bested Eric Arenson in the final. Cody Arenson and Pat Finder were semi-finalists. Maci Sloane won the Toys Done Right Junior Dragster class over Tucker Ladeburg. Briece Begyn was the lone semi-finalist. Valerie Steffens finished off the Triple win in the Novak Electric Junior Consi. Steffens bested a red-lighting Daisy Begyn in the final. Jasmine Moore was the lone semi-finalist. To top off a perfect day Valerie Steffens bested Maci Sloane in the Novak's King of the Track run-off. Congratulations to Valerie on her great day.

Bill Cassil