

Rausch doubles again: Azbill Jr. clinches High School Series

August 6th Earlville Iowa

In August one can expect heat, but we were given a break from high humidity for the weekend and it was enjoyed. Jarod Bowman took his 2000 Corvette to the winner circle in the Weldon Tire S/P final by besting a broke John Davis Jr. whos engine expired in the semi-final bye. Jim Hesseling was the lone semi-finalist. Jim Peterson bested Mark Rosenbaum in the Delhi Lumber Pro class final. Mike Cole and Pat Naughton were semi-finalists. Ben Haugen won Sportsman over Mark Rosenbohm. Valerie Steffens and Mike Wepler were semi-finalists. Bill Morris bested Jason Kaiser in the Trophy class final. Bill Gauley was the lone semi-finalist. In the first running of the Powder Puff class it was Brittany Miller besting Branda Waline. Jeannie Wymore and Cheryl Rausch were semi-finalists. The ladies of TSR will be back on track soon as a good time was had by all. Maddie Notch won Jr. Street over Keegan Campbell in the final running of the class for 16. Jason Azbill Jr. closed the points gap with a win in the Toys Done Right Junior Dragster class over Zach Halverson. Levi Mulholland and Maya Kohl were semi-finalists. In the Novak Electric Junior Consi it was Lyla Begyn besting Tucker Ladeburg in the final. Kenzie Lieferman and Maddie Notch were semi-finalists. Lyla Begyn came back for the Novak's King of the Track run-off with Jason Azbill Jr. It was lyla at the green with the win as Azbill Jr. fouled.

August 7th Earlville Iowa

The forth running of the five race series call the Wright-Way Trailers Quick 16 was contested on a beautiful Iowa day. Lou Rausch bested Ray Thompson in the final. Rausch was crushing the tree all day and used those r/t's to get the best of Andy Pozolinski, Brad Thompson and points leader Mike Chitty to make it to the final. Ray Thompson didn't have any easy rounds to get to the final. He bested Dennis Schewe, Branden Martinson, and Scott Miller to make the final. Tyler Gardner was low qualifier with a quick 6.84. Rausch pulling double duty made both pay as he bested Tom Klemme in the Weldon Tire S/P class final. Jim Hesseling and Tom Keefe were semi-finalists. Mitchell Cox bested a broke Steve Pifkin in the Delhi Lumber Pro class final. Delvin Shepard and Jim Laughlin were semi-finalists. Lance Schroeder bested Randy Temperley in the Sportsman class final. Shelby Weets was the lone semi-finalist. Neal Finder bested a red-lighting Ryan Dhabalt in the Trophy class final. Brian Moody was the lone semi-finalist. Jason Azbill Jr. bested Travis Steffens in the High School class final. Valerie Steffens was the lone semi-finalist. The win vaulted Jason into the series championship. Congratulations to the Champ. Dylan Tydrich bested Briam Moody in the AIH Chrome Street Bike presented by Grady's Graphics class final. Ryan Dhabalt was the lone semi-finalist. Aiva Moore bested Anna Vincent in the Toys Done Right Junior Dragster class final. Zach Halverson and Brock Azbill were semi-finalists. Jason Azbill Jr. bested Angelle Pullin in the Novak Electric Junior Consi. Tucker Ladeburg and Andy Rucker were semi-finalists. In the Novak's King of the Track Run-Off it was Aiva Moore getting the win over a red-lighting Jason Azbill Jr. TSR would like to thank its series sponsors for their continued support.
