

Midwest Summer Classic gets support

September 3rd, Earlville Iowa

On a beautiful Labor Day weekend the final points races of the season were contested, along with the warm-up for the NHRA class cars made for a busy weekend. Larry DeForrest was low qualifier in the Midwest/Heartland S/SS combo event on Saturday and won the eliminations. DeForrest drove well and bested Eric Pearson in a close final. Doug Jonak was the lone semi-finalist. Austin Sharpe and Craig Schultz were the last (2) racers standing in S/C and decided to split. Ron Woolridge and Scott Friis were semi-finalists. Dr. Kurt Potach S/G eliminator was won by John Gosh, Dale Evens was the r/u. Both drivers ran right on 9.90 but Gosh had the better R/t for the win. Jeff Weets was the lone semi-finalist. Valley View Farms owner Roger Van Ervelde sponsors the NCCSA event at TSR for the entire weekend allowing those guaranteed purses. Nick Vogelsang bested Garrett Chitty in a close final. Roger Van Ervelde was the lone semi-finalist. In the Weldon Tire S/P class it was split at (3) cars. Don Paisley, Tony Frazier and Dave Ringelstetter were the last competitors still in as darkness prevailed. Saved for Sunday morning was the Delhi Lumber Pro class final and Doug Heinrichs took the tree and ran closer to the dial than Nathan Schroeder's S-10. Lyle Roseman was the lone semi-finalist. Justin Rosenbohm bested Valerie Steffens in the Sportsman final. The win secured his season championship. James Thompson Jr. and Andrew Quinn were semi-finalists. John Ihm won the Trophy class over a red-lighting Tim Ketels. Brian Baker was the lone semi-finalist. Aiva Moore secured her season long championship with the win over Jason Azbill Jr. in the Toys Done Right Junior Dragster class final. Both drivers were dead-on the dial. Jasmine Moore was the lone semi-finalist. Anna Vincent bested Zach Halverson in the Novak Electric Junior Consi. Kaleb Cox and Kailey Houdek were semi-finalists. Moore and Vincent came right back for the Novak's King of the Track run-off. It was Vincent as Moore went red.

September 4th Earlville Iowa

After (1) qualifier the Midwest/Heartland S/SS combo was contested on another beautiful Iowa day. Scott Dugdale bested Bill Feist in all stick shifted final. Mike Lund was the lone semi-finalist.

Scott Dugdale, Stock-Super/Stock winner, far lane.

EmiLee Novak won S/C over Austin Sharpe in a close race. Ray Thompson was the lone semi-finalist. Tom Carlson bested John Gosh in the Dr. Potach S/G class final. Kurt Potach was the lone semi-finalist. Matt Kohl bested Jerry Jones in the Valley View Farm/NCCSA S/ST class final. Jay Holmes was the lone semi-finalist. Tyler

Gardner secured his season long championship by winning the Weldon Tire S/P class over Brad Thompson (2nd in the points). Mike Jensen and Tony Robertson were semi-finalists. Rob Livingston won the Delhi Lumber class over Jason Seeley. Ryan Ladeburg was the lone semi-finalist. Travis Steffens bested Randy Temperley in the Sportsman final. Bruce Cox and James Thompson Jr. were semi-finalists. Adam Olsen bested Bob Siegwath in the Trophy class final.

John Ihm was the lone semi-finalist. Anna Vincent won the Toys Done Right Junior Dragster class over Brock Azbill. Aiva Moore and Lyla Begyn were semi-finalists. Allie Ulbrich won the Novak Electric Junior Consi over Paige Davis. Austin Begyn and Max Kohl were semi-finalists. In the Novak's King of the Track run-off it was Allie Ulbrich getting the nod with a dead-on pass over Anna Vincent. TSR would like to thank its series and class sponsors. We couldn't do it without your support.

Tyler Gardner, Super Pro race winner and 2016 points champion.